Furniture from Spain, an itinerary of style & creativity

The SALONE INTERNAZIONALE DEL MOBILE, held every April, remains the world's most important design fair. It leads the way in furniture design, both from Italy and abroad, showcasing the innovations that will soon be shaping interiors across the globe. With an increasing presence, which is second only after Italy, Spain has been completing and enriching the Salone's offer since 1996 with its diverse array of furnishing products, design items and styles.

This year, the group of Spanish companies, which has made a contingent of 53 firms -the second largest after the host country-, has covered a surface of more than 6,400 sqm in the three style sectors -Classic, xLux, Design-, and in the Workplace3.0, which has run alongside.

Rich in style and products, the offer has been more attractive than ever, including the most sophisticated haute décor and appealing traditional furniture, inspiring and stylish proposals for indoors and outdoors, innovative design items –fruit of the collaboration with internationally renowned designers-, lounge and contract products, new cutting-edge furniture for contemporary workspaces and public spaces. All products reflect the passionate and emotional approach of the Spanish furnishing and design industry that aims at meeting different tastes, needs, trends and even, why not, cultures.

Here we give you a report of what is new and hot from the Spanish furniture & design industry. Enjoy it and get inspirations!

MITHOS collection. José Vicente

Puchades. This new collection proposes a reinterpretation of the classic style that combines great designs with modern functionalities. The emotional impact is ensured by the selection of manufacturing processes and materials, all inspired by nature.

The rustic look of oak veneers tinted with natural colours as well as the accurate choice of wood and metal finishes, in satin chrome or brushed gold, have resulted into pieces that stand out for their uniqueness and refinement.

WIND dining table. Alexandra Design Studio.

With its avant-garde aesthetic, this awesome table collection preserves all the exclusiveness the brand is renowned for. Available in 2 sizes (2 bases: 230x130x75H; 3 bases: 345x130x75H), the WIND dining table plays with volumes and aerodynamic forms. The wood veneered top is offered in two different shades, Albino or Tobacco, while the iron base can be finished: ice effect white, silver or black.

MASTER dining chair. Alexandra Design Studio. Beautifully crafted by COLECCIÓN ALEXANDRA artisans, this original design juxtaposes beech legs in different wood stain colours and a refined wraparound upholstered shell. The outside-back comes upholstered in fine engraved leathers with stainless steel detailing.

A grand master of French style, CREACIONES FEJOMI creates pieces that are real works of art and that impress for the profusion of noble woods, select veneers, precious marquetry and amazing bronze details.

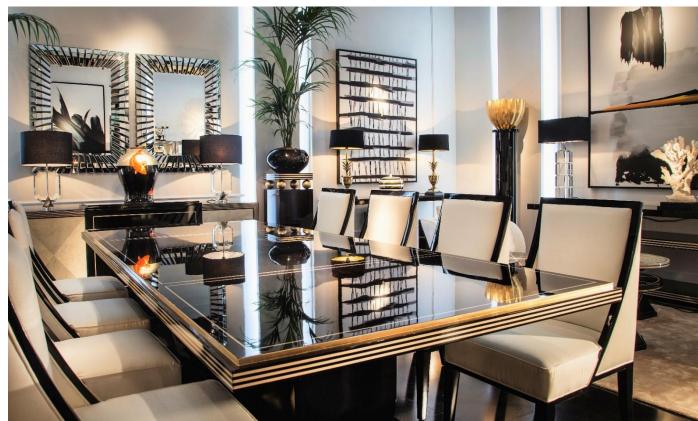

In an elegant Louis XIV style, the new exquisite dining and living rooms, bedrooms and office furniture are the epitome of luxury and opulence. Made of solid beech wood, they feature intricate marquetry works in up to 7 different noble woods, such as rosewood, American walnut and the elm burl, heavy carvings and precious handcrafted golden brass ornaments. Floral references dominate in its in-lay decorations that play with different colours to enhance the charm and refinement of pieces.

EPOCA

CENTURY Collection. Refined and exquisitely crafted, CENTURY features a subtle combination of contemporary lines and classic styles, with some bolder accents that add intrigue and sophistication to the décor. The geometric patterns, the natural elements, such as steel, marble and glass, the precious fabrics and velvets, the mirrors, the Baroque-inspired ornaments and the use of contrasting colours, such as the neutrals with black matt lacquers, keep the scheme sophisticated and chic while adding an urban vibe to glam ambiences.

New additions include the new creations by José Vázquez for the brand. Available in different colours and sizes, the H5502017 coffee tables and the M20171 cabinet combine lacquered wood with wrought iron and are suitable for both home and contract use. The Z8092 sofa stands out for its impressive look that never goes out of style. The piece is embellished by the attractive fabrics and by the refined nailhead trim that decorates the slightly roll out arms. The sofa can come upholstered with fire retarding materials if required.

SOHO Collection. With its elegant classic contemporary design, SOHO is characterized by innovative shapes and luxury materials that add understated luxury to ambiences. Geometrical volumes are softened by a profusion of soft, sweeping curves that make spaces less formal and more intimate.

The collection is available in 22 finishes such as the lacquers (matte, satin and three different levels of sheen) and a choice of wood that includes walnut, maple, oak, mahogany, rosewood and ash wood roots. Marble tops, leather and brass are used in large measure to keep schemes sophisticated and add further interest to ambiences. The colour palette is very subtle, with an emphasis on cream, ivory and bright grey.

SOHO bedroom. In natural wood or lacquered, the SOHO bedroom is pure contemporary refinement. It features a stunning king size bed with upholstered headboard and beautiful brass accents on feet, bases and handles. Bedside tables can be chosen completely wood veneered with brass detailing or with marble tops and leather fronts for a cooler touch.

NANTES Collection. Sergio Pérez. With its great elegance and style the NANTES collection reflects the contrast between sober volumes and delicate, eye-catching ornaments and lines. Pieces are embellished by marquetry and bronze ornaments that blend perfectly with the delicate oak burl veneer. The fine design and the sinuous lines of the chairs evoke the feminine side of the collection, a variation induced to delight the eye. The collection has been extended to include a new three-seater sofa and a complete bedroom.

TRIBUTE TO GIO PONTI Collection. Caterina Licitra Ponti. This new collection comes out of this intriguing marriage between craft and industry, Italian mid-century style, modernity, global vision and the young verve of Caterina, great grand daughter of Italian master Gio Ponti. It consists of 8 pieces: dining table, chair, armchair, coffee table, pedestal table, cabinet, chaise longue, and sofa. Pieces are manufactured with noble materials such as the Makassar ebony, sycamore, aluminium, steel, glass, marble-like ceramic, alabaster and luxurious fabrics.

PANAMAR offers a full range of well-made home furniture for living and dining rooms, bedrooms, entrance halls and home-office, plus a series of occasional furniture, such as shoe cabinets, mirrors, coat stands, that complements the home décor adding functionality to spaces. Materials are varied in tone and colours and include structure in solid beech wood and a choice of different warm veneers, such as the cherry, walnut or mahogany, and lacquers. Pieces come discreetly embellished by beautiful marquetry on the fronts, doors and table tops. Fine carved decorations have been added to legs and edges and beautiful bronze handles and knobs to doors and drawers for a more sophisticated and refined feel. New additions to the catalogue include matt white lacquered dining and living room furniture with top made of natural oak.

EARTH collection. Handcrafted by expert craftsmen, EARTH stands out for the use of noble materials and the great attention to details. Inspired by the beauty of nature, the collection comprises an elegant sofa, a display cabinet, a sideboard and a large dining table with luxurious, refined chairs. Pieces are made of walnut veneers and enhanced by perfect high gloss finish and bronze detailing. The handles, which are made of cast bronze, evoke the branches of trees. The large dining table, with a top that highlight the beauty of wood grain, is complemented by chairs upholstered in nubuck leather with an elegant nail head trim décor.

FORTUNE Collection. Featuring a sophisticated design, clean lines and well-proportioned volumes, the collection is now available with a complete range of pieces for different ambiences: sofas and armchairs, bedroom and living room programmes, dining room sets, coffee tables, chest-of-drawers, wardrobes and bar cabinets. All the furniture is made of the finest materials, such as leathers and noble and exotic woods (iroko, zebrano, walnut), and finished with fine lacquers and attractive fabrics and velvets. With its turquoise and beige tones, the new 4228 bedroom is totally inspired by nature and the relaxing Mediterranean atmospheres. The upholstered headboard features an intriguing design made of hexagons that recalls a honeycomb.

PRISMAS collection. A sophisticated line of living and dining furniture made of natural Makassar ebony and white pommele with stainless steel details that accentuate its sophisticated look. The reverse diamond match of the Makassar ebony veneer creates a stunning effect on the front of the spectacular sideboard, whose beauty is also enhanced by the contrasting wood and the refined diamond-shaped handle. The precious dining table, one of the latest addition to the collection, makes a big statement with its fabulous top and the robust base with glam accents.

ADN occasional furniture collection.

It features new finishes: high gloss lacquered in light colours and embellished by different metal bases.

ALPHA Collection. While staying true to the artisanal values of the brand, the new ALPHA collection has a strong contemporary look. In its design, straight and curved lines combine with noble wood, high gloss lacquers and stainless steel details that enhance the beauty of pieces and their charming appeal. The sophisticated look of the new bedroom is accentuated by the selected wood veneers, the high-gloss lacquers and the stainless steel details. The almost unnoticeable bases add lightness to the look. It is complemented by a beautiful oval-shaped chest-of-drawers. The new bookcase is made of selected Spanish walnut veneers finished in high-gloss lacquers to enhance even more the natural beauty of wood.

FLORENCIA Collection. Like all VICENTE ZARAGOZÁ's collections, the new FLORENCIA bedroom is hand-lacquered, with intriguing marble and brush effects, and decorated with designs in gold and silver leaf. To ensure a uniform finish across a whole set of furniture (bedroom, dining-room, etc.), each order is lacquered as one set, so that the tone and effects will be as similar as possible everywhere in the set. In both wood veneer and lacquer, each item is individual and unique, due to the difference in the details of the inlay designs or the lacquer finishing.

PRAGA Boiserie.

Meticulously handcrafted by master artisans by inlaying the ash veneer with noble wood, such as olive and pear wood, this outstanding boiserie is available for living rooms and also for offices. Gold leaf decorations are also possible on demand.
